

Did you know?

By 2015, the total mercury emitted from all power plants in Georgia, including both Plants Washington and Ben Hill, would be approximately 90% less than today.

To see how we are working towards an energy future with clean, affordable and reliable electricity, visit us at: POWER4Georgians.com